

Gift of Sight Granted

John Wallace presents a cheque to RCNS Treasurer Charlie Douglas in the amount of $21,744 from Rotary Foundation. Made possible through matching grants, the money will be used to purchase a Yag Laser for donation to the Rajan Memorial Hospital in Jalandhar, India. The equipment will allow eye surgery procedures to a population of over 3 million people in that community. John is one of our local heroes who is also a hero to millions of thankful people around the world.

A Tigress in Our Jungle

Who'd have known?

Tigress Lynn Jarvis joined with Keith Sutherland, Harley Clarke and Bill Allcock to win the top award at the Simcoe Rotary Club Annual Golf Tournament. Rumour has it Lynn was stalking one or more Rotarians of the opposite gender who travel with the other pack.

Letter to Editor

Thank you for your excellent coverage of Cigar Nite. One correction. We truly appreciate the generous assistance of "Double D" and Scotiabank. However, our committee was able to raise 2/3 of the evening's take ($8300... a record) and with the Scotiabank top-up we were able to write a cheque to NGH for $11500. KMJ

And thanks for pointing this error out. I'm always eager to give credit to the generous community support that Deena and Scotiabank offer. The last thing I would intentionally do, however, is to detract from the exceptional work that your committee performs with the Cigar Nite event. My sincere apologies. The Editor.

Meeting Bites

- Tamami was awarded a $750 scholarship at the Bike Trek. The funds will be used to further her education.
- Vin Ghai has again donated $2000 to Rotary to sponsor a scholarship for a student at Hindi Putri Pathshala Secondary School. The money has been forwarded to the Rotary Club in Khanna to administer its use.
- Merrill Lynch is sponsoring an African concert in Monday evening, July 9th, with the proceeds going to Lynnwood Arts Centre. RCNS was approached to be a sponsor. Keith Jones proposed that our club donate $1000 and then provide the food service for the event to recoup our costs. This proposal has been referred to committee.
